Alternative Dispute Resolution Experience

In 2022, facilitated settlement of contentious, multi-party contract/real estate litigation involving commercial property ($3 million amount-in-controversy).

In 2022, served as arbitrator in nine-party AAA arbitration involving parties and counsel located in several states and received positive feedback from counsel distinguishing performance as AAA arbitrator.

In 2021, mediated 10 of 13 unresolved issues in litigation spanning more than five years (approximate $1.2 million amount-in-controversy).

In 2021, facilitated settlement of contentious dispute spanning three years involving plumbing work performed at mixed use commercial and residential property.

In 2021, assisted parties in Part 146 Supreme Court, Nassau County online/virtual mediation in settling contentious litigation spanning eight years in two courts involving claims or counterclaims for breach of contract, corporate veil piercing, ultra vires conduct, unjust enrichment, fraudulent conveyances, and account stated.

In 2020, as Co-Chair of the New York County Lawyers Association's (NYCLA) ADR Committee, organized and conducted a 15-CLE-credit inaugural combined arbitration and mediation training for NYCLA's Part 137 Attorney-Client Fee Dispute Resolution Program (NYCLA FDRP).

The AAA provides arbitrators to parties on cases administered by the AAA under its various Rules, which delegate authority to the AAA on various issues, including arbitrator appointment and challenges, general oversight, and billing. Arbitrations that proceed without AAA administration are not considered "AAA arbitrations," even if the parties were to select an arbitrator who is on the AAA's Roster.

In 2020, as an Appellate Division Special Master and a mediator with the New York State Unified Court System Part 146 program, virtually mediated complex, six or seven-figure multi-party disputes involving breach of contract, insurance coverage, medical malpractice, negligence, and wrongful death claims. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, mediation of these cases necessitated expertise in Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) technologies such as Zoom, resources, and practices.

In 2019, represented individual client in five-figure arbitration concerning payment of a real estate sale commission and successfully negotiated settlement of this dispute in 2020.

From 2016 onwards, served as an arbitrator on 21 cases with the BBB Auto Line Program. These cases are often procedurally complicated, factually complex, high-stakes, and emotional, requiring assessment and application of the New York Lemon Law, principles of contract law, BBB Auto Line arbitration rules, and contending with technical expert reports, multiple witnesses appearing at hearings (some by telephone), and new vehicle limited warranty language.

From 2015 onwards, served as a solo arbitrator, chair, and wing on three-arbitrator panels, as well as a mediator, in the NYCLA FDRP in over 24 cases having combined total amounts-in-controversy exceeding $275,000. These disputes involved the quality of underlying attorney representation in commercial, family/matrimonial, immigration, and securities litigation, as well as transactional work such as incorporations and preparation of trusts and estates documents.

Consumer Experience	ATTORNEY-CLIENT FEE DISPUTE EXPERIENCE: Since 2015, served as an arbitrator (both sole and on three-arbitrator panels (in both Wing and Chair capacities) and mediator in 29 cases (one currently pending) as part of the New York County Lawyers Association's (NYCLA) Part 137 Attorney-Client Fee Dispute Resolution Program (FDRP), and in 2020, was asked on account of extensive technical expertise and skills by NYCLA General Counsel Anthe Maria Bova, Esq., to assume responsibility for revitalizing and revamping the FDRP to become a totally remote/online program on account of the pandemic. The FDRP is effectively a consumer-driven program: consumers of legal services—clients—request arbitrators to assess the reasonableness of fees charged by the attorneys with whom these clients have contracted to provide legal services via retainer agreements/engagement letters, which are legally-binding contracts. As such, contract interpretation is at the very heart of the program. LEMON LAW EXPERIENCE: Since 2016, have served as an arbitrator in 21 cases with Better Business Bureau National Program's BBB AUTO LINE, "one of the largest and longest-running dispute resolution programs in the United States [that] help[s] consumers and businesses resolve vehicle warranty, lemon law, and class action disputes in a hassle-free, timely, and cost-effective manner." (See https://bbbprograms.org/programs/all-programs/bbb-autoline). Several members of the BBB AUTO LINE staff--specifically Jennifer Rowley, Meryl Vento, and, most recently, Elizabeth Edwards (contact information for all three are available upon request)--have provided excellent arbitrator performance recommendations. Specifically, Ms. Rowley indicated the following in a January 2019 letter of recommendation (also available upon request): "I have worked as an arbitrator trainer for the BBB AUTO LINE arbitration program for the last eighteen years, and Elan Weinreb is one of a small handful of individuals I have trained that truly made a lasting impression. He was an exemplary student and has served reliably as an arbitrator over the last two years. I think it must be the optimal combination of keen intellect combined with a remarkably affable demeanor that makes him such a successful arbitrator and someone I know my colleagues and I hold in very high esteem.

Many of the . . . arbitration cases assigned to Mr. Weinreb have been procedurally complicated, factually complex, high stakes, and emotional. In addition to assessing and applying the New York Lemon Law and BBB AUTO LINE arbitration rules, Mr. Weinreb also has had to contend with technical expert reports, multiple witnesses appearing at hearings (some by telephone), and distinct program summaries and new vehicle limited warranties for each auto manufacturer involved. Noteworthy also is Mr. Weinreb's professional demeanor in conducting hearings, as well as his sharp analytical skills and attention to detail in issuing decisions. His decision quality has been outstanding. In fact, our program recently decided to pilot an off-site hearing strategy allowing arbitrators to hear cases in their own professional offices. We selected Mr. Weinreb to be our very first arbitrator to test out this new approach. In short, we trust this arbitrator!"

NEW YORK STATE DENTAL ASSOCIATION (NYSDA) ARBITRATION EXPERIENCE: Successfully represented client in two hearings and one internal appeal held over 2018-19 conducted under the auspices of the New York State Dental Association's Peer Review and Quality Assurance Program, which "provides a confidential, impartial and timely way to resolve complaints about the appropriateness and quality of dental treatment provided by NYSDA-member dentists." (See <https://www.nysdental.org/member-center/legal-resources/peer-review>).

Experience

In 2022, using a mix of litigation and mediation skills and techniques, represented defendant LLC commercial property owner in resolving contentious, multi-party contract/real estate dispute ($3 million amount-in-controversy).

In 2021, using a mix of litigation and mediation skills and techniques, represented defendant landlord affected by pandemic in resolving five-figure dispute with plumbing corporation with minimal court involvement and within seven months of corporation having filed suit.

In 2020, settled contentious, five-year multi-million dollar shareholder derivative litigation on behalf of large not-for-profit corporate defendant/counter-claimant client involving motion, deposition, trial, and appellate practice, as well as diverse and complicated areas of procedural and substantive New York state and federal law, including but not limited to provisional remedies, breach of fiduciary duty, corporate malfeasance necessitating removal as an officer or director, the equitable remedy of accounting, unlawful/ultra vires conveyances, assignments, or transfers, lack of standing, statutes of limitation, the business judgment rule, ratification, tortious interference with contract and business relations, libel, slander, failure to join a necessary party, waiver, collateral, equitable, and judicial estoppel, replevin, breach of contract, fraud, fraudulent inducement, unjust enrichment, constructive trust imposition, and appellate general and motion practice.

In 2018, obtained a significant five-figure judgment after inquest requiring appearance of individual plaintiff single mother in court, concluding contentious three-year civil litigation involving conversion, return of gifts made in contemplation of marriage pursuant to New York Civil Rights Law Section 80-b, unjust enrichment, counterclaims for defamation and prima facie tort, an ultimately unsuccessful mediation conducted by two community co-mediators, motion, discovery, trial, and post-trial practice.

Prior to 2014, supervised and directed junior associates and law school interns in all phases of litigation, conducted 11-day evidentiary hearing in contentious multi-million dollar corporate litigation that was resolved in favor of multiple clients, obtained two Yellowstone injunctions for corporate client in multi-million dollar commercial lease litigation, prepared individual client for and conducted inquest resulting in entry of five-figure judgment in client's favor, negotiated settlement of six-figure product liability property damage dispute with opposing counsel, lead intra-firm and extra-firm document review teams, and provided trial team support on a robust range of state and federal civil litigation matters, including but not limited to breach of contract, insurance, real estate, bankruptcy, antitrust, uncontested divorce, product liability, personal injury, and wrongful death actions.

Experience as a Mediator

Served as a commercial mediator in many cases involving business organizations and individuals. Approximately half of these cases involve attorney-client fee dispute arbitrations that are first sent to mediation on consent of the parties, and binding stipulations of settlement have been executed resolving all of them.

In August 2021, assisted parties, one of whom was traveling in Greece, in virtual private mediation with resolving 10 of 13 unresolved issues in litigation spanning more than five years involving an amount-in-controversy of approximately $1.2 million.

On March 24, 2021, after two sessions were held in a Part 146 Supreme Court, Nassau County online/virtual commercial mediation, assisted parties in settling contentious litigation spanning eight years in two courts involving claims or counterclaims for breach of contract, piercing of the corporate veil, ultra vires conduct, unjust enrichment, fraudulent conveyances, and account stated.

Currently have pending mediation of an attorney-client fee dispute concerning the initiation of uncontested divorce proceedings and one Part 146 Supreme Court, Nassau County online/virtual commercial mediation involving alleged nursing home misconduct and alleged violations of the New York Public Health Law protecting nursing home patients.

As an appellate division Special Master and a court-appointed mediator with the New York State Unified Court System Part 146 program, mediated complex, six or seven-figure multi-party disputes. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, mediation of these cases necessitated extensive experience with and use of Online Dispute Resolution ("ODR") technologies (including but not limited to Zoom), resources, and practices.

From 2015 to the present, served as a mediator in the NYCLA FDRP in cases having combined total amounts in controversy exceeding $100,000. Each of these disputes raised for consideration the quality of underlying attorney representation in the context of various matters, including but not limited to commercial, family/matrimonial, immigration, and securities litigation, as well as transactional work such as business incorporations and preparation of trusts and estates documents.

Currently, as Co-Chair of NYCLA's ADR Committee, was recently appointed by NYCLA's General Counsel to direct and supervise revamp and overhaul of the NYCLA FDRP to conform with ODR guidelines promulgated by the New York Unified Court System Office of Court Administration and train prospective NYCLA FDRP mediators and arbitrators in assisting with backlog of cases occasioned by COVID-19 pandemic.

Prior to 2014, successfully mediated contentious six-figure trust dispute among a mother and four sisters located in different states and Mexico, assisted in negotiating settlement of a multi-million dollar partnership litigation after commencing arbitration in rabbinical court (Beth Din), and assisted in preparation of corporate executives for bankruptcy mediation.

Representative Issues
Handled as a Mediator

To date, all handled mediations have involved claims, defenses, or allegations of breach of contractual or quasi-contractual relationships/issues implicating unjust enrichment, and slightly more than half have additionally involved claims or allegations of breach of fiduciary duty, legal malpractice, deceit, fraud, misrepresentation, and conversion. Claims or allegations of business organization/corporate governance misconduct, medical malpractice, negligence, personal injury, wrongful death, piercing of the corporate veil, specific performance, restitution, or similar other equitable relief, and declaratory judgments establishing the rights and responsibilities of parties (particularly with respect to insurance coverage) have also been encountered on occasion.

Multi Party Mediation
Experience

In 2022, using a mix of litigation and mediation skills and techniques, represented defendant LLC commercial property owner in resolving contentious, multi-party contract/real estate dispute ($3 million amount-in-controversy).

In 2020, as an Appellate Division Special Master and as a mediator with the New York State Unified Court System Part 146 program, mediated (virtual and hybrid) two multi-party medical malpractice, negligence, and wrongful death cases involving four and twelve parties, respectively.

Mediated

Mediation Experience as an Advocate or Party

Served as an advocate for an individual client in two New York County Dental Society ("NYCDS") mediations involving NYCDS' Peer Review arbitration program.

Represented an individual client who had brought a multi-faceted New York Civil Rights Section 80-b (Gifts made in contemplation of marriage), conversion/replevin, and unjust enrichment action in Nassau County Supreme Court against her ex-boyfriend in a five-hour mediation conducted at a Community Dispute Resolution Center located in Long Island.

In 2004, as a Kaye Scholer LLP associate, assisted team of attorneys in representing a large corporate nutritional supplements client in a bankruptcy mediation related to litigation then pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

Mediation Philosophy

I ardently believe in the following definition and foundational principles of mediation: "a process in which a neutral, third-party (the mediator) works with the parties to reach a mutually agreeable settlement of their dispute. The mediator may assist the parties and their counsel in formulating the terms of their settlement. While his or her role is to aid in facilitating a settlement agreeable to the parties, he or she does not have authority to impose a resolution on the parties."

At the same time, I am not a purely facilitative mediator but rather identify as a "protean" or "chameleon" (the term I prefer) one. In this regard, I consciously refuse to align with any of the "big three" styles of mediation (i.e., facilitative, evaluative, and transformative). Instead, I choose to adapt rather than to adopt by dynamically combining the techniques of all three styles at any time in the mediation process (and sometimes outside of it as well) as circumstances change.
